News and Events at the Parlin Field Airport in Newport, New Hampshire

July 2013

Comanche Camaraderie

Saturday June 15th dawned bright and blue – perfect for a gathering of friends at Parlin Field. Nine aircraft from the International Comanche Society's Northeast tribe arrived under near perfect weather to take in lunch at the Lil' Red Baron. The aircraft arrived from points all throughout New England and beyond including RI, NY and CT. The tribe has been making Parlin Field an annual destination for several years and we look forward to their well-coordinated arrival every year!

The transient aircraft parking ramp filled up quickly as other visitors to Parlin Field arrived by air, dropping in for fuel, food and friendship. It was a great day for aviating!

Propelling Wellness

The New London Hospital held their annual fund raising gala at Parlin Field on the evening of June 15th at Edmonds Aircraft Service.

Participants of the sold-out event enjoyed an evening of perfect weather, food, music and an aviation atmosphere of days gone by as the aircraft parking ramp was adorned with a T-6 Texan, Cessna 120 and an Air-coupe.

Parlin Field staff were on hand to talk about the airplanes on display as well as to provide airport awareness for interested guests.

Come one, Come all! Monthly Chill & Grill

Friends and family descend upon the Recycled Pilots hangar, at the north end of Parlin Field during the warm weather months, to do some ol' fashioned face-to-face conversing just like the old days before texting dominated. So come join us! Don't forget to bring your favorite BBQ food and beverages! Grill and condiments are provided by Recycled Pilots. All are welcome. The next one is July 17th; we hope to see your smiling face there!!
