

News and Events at the Parlin Field Airport in Newport, New Hampshire

March 2013

All wrapped up!

The Newport Recreation Department's K-8 wrestling program has found perfect accommodations at Parlin Field in which to hold their twice weekly practices thanks to hangar owner and pilot Bob Davis and family. The popularity of the extensive recreation programs offered by the Newport Recreation Department has put a strain on the capacity of their existing facilities; and when Davis heard that they were looking for additional space to hold wrestling practices, he offered up the use of his hangar. The Rec Dept. was able to set up wrestling mats and a seating area for parents within the hangar and have been holding practices at the hangar since the beginning of March.

The Parlin Shuffle

Parlin Field was the place to be on Saturday, March 16th as more than a dozen aircraft from all over New England descended upon Parlin Field for some good old fashioned camaraderie and Mexican food at the Lil' Red Baron restaurant.

The ramp was filled with aircraft ranging in size from Cessna 150's to a Beechcraft Baron. With 2-foot high snow banks, limited paved apron space and snow covered tie down area, parking became a bit of a challenge but ultimately everyone was accommodated and we were glad to see people coming out to enjoy our airport. Fresh baked cookies and a warm fire greeted those that stopped in!

At Parlin You Can Have Your Cake and Eat it Too...

Angie Marsden baked up a sweet treat to be auctioned off at the local Boy Scout Blue and Gold Jamboree which was held in early March. The Scouts had reached out to local town departments to bake up cakes to be auctioned off, the proceeds of which would benefit the Newport scout troop. Parlin Field was well represented by the Parlin Field airplane soaring over a frosty layer of clouds. The cake fetched $30 at auction.
