

News Release

December 2, 2019: The Town of Newport, N.H. is pleased to announce the appointment of Steven J. Yannuzzi as its next Fire Chief.

Mr. Yannuzzi comes to the Newport Fire-EMS Department with a considerable career of experience as a professional in fire and safety services. Among them has been Deputy Chief of the Bellows Falls, VT Fire Department and Chief of the Bristol, N.H. Fire Department. Steve has also served Dartmouth Hitchcock Medical Center as their Public Health Emergency Coordinator and as a member of DHART.

In addition to Chief Yannuzzi's professional credentials, he has also attained a Master's Degree in Public Administration focusing on Crisis Management and Organizational Leadership from Norwich University and a Bachelor's Degree from Granite State College. His professional certifications include; Firefighter 1&2, Fire Service Instructor, Advanced EMT and he has completed the training necessary to have earned his Executive Fire Officer Designation.

Please drop by the Fire Station and join us in welcoming Chief Yannuzzi and his family to Newport!