 - k. Checking of schools, parks, and playgrounds.
 - l. Responding to any public emergency.
2. Conduct thorough initial and follow-up investigations of all offenses and incidents within that area of assignment and scope of activity. Collect evidence and record data which will aid in the identification, apprehension, and prosecution of offenders, as well as the recovery of property.
 3. Be alert to the development of conditions tending to cause crime or be indicative of criminal activity. Take preventive action to correct such conditions, and inform superiors as soon as the situation permits.
 4. Respond to situations brought to the officer's attention while in the course of routine patrol or when assigned by radio. Render first aid, when qualified, to persons who are seriously ill or injured, while taking precautions to avoid exposure to health hazards. Assist persons needing police services.

5. Remain in assigned area throughout the tour of duty except when a police emergency necessitates a temporary absence, or when an Officer-in-Charge or the Dispatcher has issued authorization for a temporary absence.
6. Patrol area(s) giving particular attention to and frequently rechecking locations where a crime hazard is great. Insofar as possible, a Patrol Officer shall not patrol an area according to any fixed route or schedule, but shall alternate frequently and backtrack in order to be at the location least expected.
7. Be alert for all nuisances, impediments, obstructions, defects or other conditions that might endanger or hinder the safety, health, or convenience of the public within the patrol area.
8. If assigned to operate a motor vehicle:
 - a. See that it is well maintained mechanically and that it is kept clean both inside and out.
 - b. Inspect the vehicle at the beginning of the tour of duty for any defects or missing equipment. Immediately report all defects and damages sustained to the vehicle to the proper authority and complete all reports and forms required by current procedures.
 - c. Remove the keys and lock all doors whenever the patrol car is left unattended for any reason except in cases of close supervision where necessary for the efficiency of patrol operations.
 - d. Use only vehicles assigned by the Officer-in-Charge.
 - e. Use his/her assigned call number to contact headquarters.
 - f. Operate the radio in keeping with FCC regulations and current departmental procedures.
 - g. Ensure that the assigned vehicle's gas tank is full at the start of and prior to completion of each tour of duty. Ensure that there is an appropriate level of oil, and other required fluids, at the start of each shift.
9. Keep radio equipment in operation at all times and be thoroughly familiar with departmental policy concerning use of the radios.
10. Take measures to direct the flow of traffic in the area during periods of congestion.
11. Notify the Officer-in-Charge if more than a temporary absence from regular duties is required.
12. Make periodic reports to the department as needed.
13. Conduct field interviews of witnesses and field/in custody interrogations of suspects/arrestee and complete written statements of same.

SPECIFIC DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES - TRAFFIC PATROL

1. Direct and expedite the flow of traffic at assigned intersections keeping in mind the duty as a traffic officer is preventing accidents, protecting pedestrians and ensuring the free flow of traffic.
2. Enforce the parking ordinances and motor vehicles laws in the patrol areas.
3. Be alert for traffic safety conditions which may endanger or inconvenience the public and report, as required.
4. Respond immediately when called from a traffic post to render emergency police service. Notify the station at the earliest possible opportunity.
5. Wear the prescribed traffic safety clothing and equipment.

Additional Duties by Assignment

Patrol Officers may be given one or more additional duty by competent authority in addition to regular patrol duties. These assignments include, but are not limited to, Investigator, Accident Investigation Specialist, Field Training Officer, Evidence Officer. Patrol Officers may also perform the duties of subordinate personnel as needed, to include, but not limited to, acting as a communications specialist.
